

The Liberation Center

for Spiritual Enrichment

Enrich Your Journey

The Liberation Center for Spiritual Enrichment is a program of Liberation United Church of Christ

The Liberation Center for Spiritual Enrichment welcomes people of faith who seek spiritual growth and personal enrichment. It is a teaching-learning center, a sacred community where people come together to grow in spiritual awareness – body, mind and spirit – and learn spiritual practices to support them in working with the complex possibilities of today's world.

We honor the individual and celebrate diversity. With hospitality, simplicity and joy, we extend a warm welcome to all people in search of a spiritual community where they are embraced, respected and accepted for who they are and inspired and supported to grow to their highest potential.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

All programs are held at Liberation UCC.

Transformational Movement as Prayer

Facilitator/Presenter: Roger Sams

Movement can be a powerful form of prayer, taking you into a profound place of stillness. Together we'll explore a deeper understanding of the process that Jesus invites us into: a personal death to ways of being that do not serve us and resurrection into a life of infinite love and light.

During this three-class series, we explore two ideas simultaneously: 1) what it's like to be in relationships with the energy of Cosmic Christ; and 2) the idea of movement as a form of prayer or spiritual practice that opens us up to a new way of listening to Spirit through the wisdom of the body. We use movement to expand our awareness, opening ourselves to bigger possibilities for living life in the fullness of the energy of Christ.

Drumming Circle

Facilitator/Presenter: Ed Boas

Group drumming is a unique experience designed to help people more fully realize how each of their voices, contributes to the whole. Each participant will select a percussion instrument and communicate through rhythm with the help of a trained facilitator. This experience will enable participants to communicate, listen, and respond to each other in novel ways, thus tapping creative potential and heightening interaction that transcends words. This rhythm-based experience is also designed to reduce stress, strengthen relationships, and celebrate diversity.

Reclaiming Your Creative Self (Process Dance)

Facilitator/Presenter: Linda Miller

Through this experience you will enter an inner dialogue with Spirit using the mediums of dance and painting. No dancing or painting experience is needed. The purpose is not to create beautiful dance or a dramatic painting, but to use these mediums to help you let go of inhibitions, limitations, fears, and control. This process will expand your capacity to be more fully alive and in the present, to trust your own inner Guidance and connect with your true Power. Bring a sense of childlike curiosity and the willingness to go wherever the journey leads you.

RCS Saturday, May 22 2:30 – 6:30 pm (2:00 on-site registration)

Registration Preferred by: May 14

Facilitators / Presenters

Ed Boas has been a drummer most of his life. He has had formal training in classical, jazz and world percussion. After a career in the corporate world, Ed has returned to his passion for music and formed a company called Creative Rhythm. He consults businesses and organizations using drumming and rhythm as a way to strengthen teams, build cohesion and enhance creativity in the workplace.

Ed currently lives in Sandusky with his wife Marlene and has three grown sons.

Mary Alice Mastrovito began her teaching career in 1972, and has since presented courses and workshops in a wide variety of contexts, including Kingwood Center Botanical Garden in Mansfield, OH, the Departments of Adult Education at Lakewood and Strongsville City Schools, The Authentic Living Center, Ireland Cancer Center, Liberation UCC and other venues on topics ranging from horticulture to meditation to healing arts. She weaves these varied threads into a rich tapestry, drawing upon her study and mastery of healing modalities including Flower Essence therapy, Reiki, and Soul Coaching®, to develop an integrated and holistic approach to wellness centered in the affirmation of our essential connectedness with the natural world. As a graduate of the International Soul Coaching Training Institute, Mary Alice is proud to introduce Soul Coaching® to the greater Cleveland area.

Linda Miller, the owner of JourneyQuest, comes from an eclectic background which ranges from managing volunteer programs for non-profit agencies to designing and delivering corporate training programs within a manufacturing setting. Linda, who has experience working with people from diverse backgrounds and cultures, leads groups in spiritual process and offers programs designed to increase self-awareness which can lead to positive change. She has used dancing and painting as both creative and therapeutic processes and has over 15 years of experience in group facilitation. Dancing has been a lifelong passion of Linda's, and she beautifully weaves this in with her ability to create a loving and safe environment for people to explore, grow and have fun.

Linda received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Behavioral Sciences from Ursuline College and practices daily prayer, meditation and yoga.

Roger Sams, MA, travels throughout the US leading seminars for music and movement educators and spiritual retreats for those interested in touching God through the arts. He has taught at The University of Montana, The University of St. Thomas, The University of Wisconsin and Cleveland State University. He trained in Gestalt theory at the Gestalt Institute of Cleveland and has studied diverse modalities of dance and movement prayer. Roger served on the National Board of Trustees of the American Orff-Schulwerk Association, and frequently publishes in journals for music and movement educators and in regional spiritual magazines. He is the Spiritual Director of the Sacred Arts Holistic Center.

Neal Szpatura is a shamanic practitioner, writer, Tarot reader and intuitive consultant. He has studied with the Foundation for Shamanic Studies and in independent study with its faculty, as well as with indigenous teachers from North and South America, Africa, and Australia. He teaches shamanic practice, dreamwork and intuitive development and works with clients on sacred path issues.
